Terms of Use:

I confirm that I have read and agree to abide by the Terms of use of the Archives of Contemporary Art (ACA). In particular, I will:

1. handle the materials entrusted to me with utmost care and return them in complete and perfect order.
2. respect the rights of third parties when publishing materials, particularly copyright and privacy rights.
3. neither copy nor disseminate by any means and part or whole of a record or material without the express permission of the ACA and any copyright holders. An Application for Permission to Publish must be made prior to publication of any ACA materials. For the publication of scholarly findings based upon the collections, the ACA is to be cited as repository. The library of the ACA is likewise to be presented with a complimentary copy of the publication.
4. be liable in the case of any breach of these legal conditions.

Data Protection Policy / Use Requests:

The Danube University Krems (DUK) stores provided data for the sole purpose of processing your request. Data will not be given to third parties.

Your rights:

In accordance with the GDPR, you have the right to obtain information about any stored personal data at any time, and may also request the correction, deletion, or use limitation of your personal data.

In addition, you may invoke your right of objection at any time, without declaration of reason, to amend or revoke the provided statement of consent with immediate effect. You can submit your revocation by post or e-mail to the DUK.

I have read and agreed to abide by the above terms and conditions.
